ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The defendant shall refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance.

The defendant shall submit to the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant at the direction of the United States Probation Office pursuant to section 3 of the DNA Analysis Backlog Elimination Act of 2000 (42 U.S.C., Section 14135a).

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any fine or restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine or restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $170,484. The Court will waive the interest requirement in this case. Payments should be made payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court, for distribution to the victims outlined in this judgment order.

The defendant's restitution obligation shall not be affected by any restitution payments made by other defendants in this case, except that no further payments shall be required after the sum of the amounts actually paid by all defendants has fully satisfied this loss. The following defendants in the following cases may be subject to restitution orders to the same victims for the same losses:

U.S. v. Carter	CR 14-300-02
U.S. v. Holloway	CR 14-300-03
U.S. v. James	CR 13-623-01
U.S. v. Nicholas	CR 13-623-02

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.

The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine. The Court will waive the fine in this case. It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total special assessment of $300, which shall be due immediately.
